

From: Steve Anderson
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 11:57am
Subject: The proposed settlement in the Microsoft antitrust case does not go far enough

Dear Sirs,

The only way to level the playing field after the years of abuse by Microsoft is to let the competition have access to the source code.

Microsoft should be compelled to make available a license to any interested party for the source code for all versions of Windows(R) for a reasonable fee, perhaps $1,000,000.

Thank you.

Steve Anderson
Phone 480-315-8577
FAX 508-300-0337
stevea@eosgroup.com
www.eosgroup.com